The State Fair-The Closing Days. Manison, Friday, Oct. 8. The rain which fell nearly all Wednesday and cast such a damper upon the Fair and the anticipations of visitors, was followed, at nightfall, by a stiff blow from the North-West which soon chased away the clouds, and brought us a clear sky. In the evening, the Editorial Convention first dime. P. T. Babnum was also a creditor to met at the Assembly Chamber to listen to a most interesting and able address from CHARLES D. The Convention closed its labors

And the desired its labors this morning, after a pleasant and profitable session. I suger the most bouckful results from the fighthering. The next meeting of the Association is to be held at Milwaukee, on the third Wednesday in June.

Thursday morning broke bright and clear, and the elifting sounds of martial music soon waked up the whole city. Everybody was early set in to see the Military Parado and the Firemen's Procession. All the Fire Companies, some twelve or thirteen in number, assembled near the American House at 9 clock, and form to the Fair Grounds. They made a splendid show. It was no the constituted the principal grace, and the three fire only is strained.

HIBBARD .-Major Entsworth, of Chicago, acted as Colonel. and the regiment was reviewed by Mejor-General William Blakr, of Fox Lake, a veteran of the war of 1812-14. All the companies looked and marched well. The Cavalry Company is altogether the best one I have seen in the North-West-indeed I doubt whether there is a finer volunteer corps in the Union. The Governor's Goard is another excellent company, strong in numbers, perfect in equipments, and soldier-like in look and movement. The Madison Guard are also a fine-looking company, and have made rapid and creditable progress in drill. Our State Capital has abundant reason to be proud of its military. They were most profuse in their hospitalities to our Milwaukee Military. Besides Company "A" and the Cadets, there were delegates present from Company "B" and the Juneau Guard.

Less evening the Republican State Convention held its closing session. It was well attended and entirely harmonious in its actions. The Hon. L. P. Hanver, of Rock, one of the truest and hardest working Republicans in the State, made a capital apeach. Mr. WASHBURNE, our excellent Representative from the second District, also addressed the Convention with the

At the hotel the lady formed an acquaintance with a young man named James L. Bilger, which, it is charged, led first to intimacy and then to sin.—While this intimacy was in progress, the devoted husband was lavishing jewels and costly dresses upon his lovely wife, but this did not prevent her from planning an elopement with Bilger, and on Friday morning Mrs. S. and the young man were both missing. The police were notified and the guilty pair were discovered in a house of lit-repute. Bilger was taken into coustedy on a charge of abduction, and the wife was restored to her husband, who, with a depth of affection truly remarkable, received her without a reproach. It is said that Mrs. S. had been coorced into marriage by her father, who had sactifieed her to her present husband in return for pecuniary sid which rescued him frome ommercial discredit.

REPUBLICAN NOMINATIONS FOR CONGRESS, PIRST DISTRICT,

JOHN F. POTTER. SECOND DISTRICT,

CADWALLADER C. WASHBURNE. THIRD DISTRICT. CHARLES BILLINGHURST.

Republican County Convention,

THE Republican Electors of the several Wards and Towns in the County of Milwaukee are invited to mee, at their respective head-quarters, on Esturday, Oct. 16, and electrice delegates from each Town and Ward to eet in County Convention, at the Court House, in the City of Milwaukee, at 12 o'clock on Esturday, October 28d, to organize for the November election and decide upon the proper course to take with reference to the County nominations.

By Onder of the County Countries. Milwankee, Oct. 2, 1852.

A Subject for the Consideration of Enboring Men and Mechanics. The following is an extract from one of Gov. HANNOND'S Democratic speeches:

"SLAVERY IS THE NATURAL AND NORMAL CONDITION OF THE LABORING MAN—WHITE or black. The great evil of the Northern free society is, that it is burdened with A SERVILE CLASS OF MECHANICS AND LABOREES under for self government, and yet clothed with attibutes and powers of citizens. MASTER AND SLAVE IS A RELATION IN SOCIETY AS NECESSARY AS PARENT AND CHILD; AND THE NORTHERN STATES WILL HAVE TO INTRODUCE IT. The theory of free government is a definishen."

.Gov. HAMMORD is a prominent member of the United States Senate, and a leading member of legton, worked in worsted, by Mrs. A. W. Sher-object of his merriment. the Democracy of the South with whom the ARD, of La Crosse, is one of the best exhibitions Northern Democracy are closely allied, and of the kind that we have ever seen. The time always unite upon questions of National policy. The doctrine promulgated by Gov. HANNOND meets the hearty approval of the Southern wing of the great Democratic Party which now rules the Nation; and which is now endeavoring to extend alayery over the hitherto free Tetritories of our country, in disregard of the Constitution. Gov. Hawnord is a man of acknowledged influence in his parts, and the principles expressed In the above quotation are silently acquiesced in by the leaders of the Democracy, both Nerth and South. In fact they are only one degre. removed from the principles which Judge LAR-RABER, the Democratic nomines for Congress in the Third District, openly avows. Judge Las-BABIR Says "Slavery or servitude is the normal or natural condition of the African." Gov. Hannerd says "Slavery is the natural and nor mal condition of the LABORING MAN-WHITE or black," What a similarity! and who can doubt that Judge Largabur would confine with a fine contribution of farcy articles from his ideas of servitude to the "African" alone, if he were a few degrees further South?

Here are the sentiments of two leading Democrats, one of whom is a member of Congress and the other asking the freemen of Wisconsin to send him there. The only difference between Gov. HAMMOND and Judge LARRADER 12, that the Gov. is more frank in expressing his views than the Judge. They are both believers in the same political creed, and are both working for the same end. Let us compare their position a little more closely. Judge LARRABEE believes that glavery was escablished "by Jahovah himself," and in his speech at Menasha the other day, be said that he "would rather see every State in the Jounson went to Pike's Peak expecting to find Union a Slave State," than that the Republican party should be successful. Undoubtedly Judge LARRADEE would have no objections to "see every State in the Union a Slave State," if he could only get to Congress, that slavery exists of right in all the territories and that Congress should protect it there, but he other case, to bis knowledge, did it exceed $1, acknowledges that he would have no serious objections to have the "Divine Institution" extended to "every State in the Union." The extension of Slavery to the Free States would reduce the free laborers to a condition little superior to the slave. In proportion to the spread of slavery free labor is degraded and as FRANK BLAIR FRYS the free white laborers are the principal sufferers from slavery. There is no class more to be pittied in the Southern States than the free laborers The aristocratic slave-holliers despise tham and they are reduced to a servitude almost as degrading as that of the Africans. It is evident therefore that Judge LARRABEE has not the intereste of the laboring men and mechanics is view, no more than has Gov. HAMMOND. Ha only looks to party success, and if sent to Congress, would willingly sustain the most ultra proelavery doctrines.

But Judge LARRABLE's position is nothing more or less than a true exposition of Democracy as it is at the present time. Mesers, Donn and Brown, if not as ultra in their views as Judge LARRABEZ, will second any measure that may be put forward by the party.

This is a subject worthy of the serious consideration of members of the Democratic Party, who are not prepared to follow the lead of such men as Gov. Hawwond and Judge Larrance in their crusade against free labor.

Are the laborers and mechanics of Wisconsin aware that the leaders of the party to which, we are sorry to say, thousands of them belong, are not only lending their aid to extend the area of slavery, and thereby degrade free labor by bringlng it into direct competition with alave labor, but are working side by side with mon who declare that "slavery is the natural normal condition of the LABORING MAN, WHITE or black," and that "laborers and mechanics are a servile class unfit to govern themselves to the Empire State. The Doughface Democracy will make extraordinary efforts to carry the State of New York in the coming election, but a glorious Republican victory there is a certainty. Upon this su ject the Albany Journal says: "Can any one name ten men in any County who, voted for FREMONT who will not now vote for MORGAN? If they nannot, and if one half the Republicans who did not vote last year vote now, what can prevent a Republican majority of $0,000 ? There is no power in arithmetic to defeat us, if our vote is out. And our vote will be out. Every School District in the State will be canvassed; and that is something which has not been done in twenty yeare! There is just fear enough and hope enough of the result, to make every man vote. The deficient 18,000 last year will give us a surplus 30,000 now. Every Republican wants to carry the State; and no Republican will think the State can be carried unless he votes. This feeling is worth fifty thousand beliets. MARK! New York will take her place on the right of the army of Republican States in November. No power on earth can prevent it!

The island in question is one of the Gallipagos
Group, and was formerly used by the Peruvian Government as a penal station; it was afterwards abandoned, but was sometimes visited by whalers for the beef of the wild bullock left upon the island, and theis fact probably led to the rescue of Francis,

The trial of this case reminds us of a con what similar case many years ago on board an English man-of-war, which at the time caused great excitement in England. There was on board the English ship a mere had from the West Coast of England, who had been caught in some trivial their, and for no other cause than this the Captain ordered him to be taken, with a realy say food or clother to the taken, with wards the facts were made public in England, wards the lacks were made public in England, and great interest was expressed to know the fate of the poor lad. So great was the excitement that at last the British Government was obliged to take notice of it, and an expedition was sent specially to the island to search for the boy. Nothing was found there but a skeleton, from which it was supposed that he had perished.

ed. It was not long, however, before it was whispered about that the toy had been rescued and taken to the American continent. The English Government found it necessary to send another expedition, for the public indignasent another expedition, for the public indigna-tion grew hot against the inhumn captein, and at last the lad was discoverd with a family at Marolehead, a Yankee vessel having resemed the boy at the last moment from his place of abin-domment. He was thus restored, after the lapse of a number of years, to his mother in England Samue had the case attracted public notice that as the ressel reached the shores the greates curiosity was manifested to see him, which con-tinued as he passed through the country; and in consequence of this expression of public epinion, the inhuman captain was obliged to compound or his cruelty by the payment to his victim of a large som in money.—Boxton Traveller, THE Size of BRITISH COLEMBIA.—The posses-sions of the Hudson Bay Company or the terri-tory of the continent over which they exercise control, contains an area of two million five hundred thousand square miles. Colbett, in his Grammar of the English Language, writes, "Who, which becomes whose in the possessive case, and whom, in the objective case, is, it is use, confined to rational beings: for, though some writers do say, the country whose fertility is great," and the like is not correct." Further on, in remarking on the common say in which very good witters often employ "whom," and citing cases, Cobbett writes, "A hundred such phrases might be collected from Hume, Blackstone, and even from Doctors Blair and Johnson. Yet, they are bad agreement."

The red light shore through the open door, From the round, declining and, and facts she should, On the dusty flow were thrown. On the dusty flow were thrown, as the factory clock told the hour of five, And the School was almost door. And the school was almost used. The mingiged hum of the busy town less faith from the lower plain; And we saw the steeple over the trees, With its motionless, golden wans; And less of the cattle was in the cattle and in the And less of the cattle services in the cattle of standing grain.

In the open easement a lingering bee Murmured a drowsy time, And, from the upland meadows, a song In the fall of the afterwood Had come, on the air that wandered by, Eaden with the scents of June, Our tasks were finished and lessons said, And we sat, all bushed and sill, Listening to catch the part of the brook, And the whire of the distant mill; And waiting the word of dismissai, that yet Waited the master's will.

The master was old and his form was bent, And coattered and white his halr, But his neart was young and there ever dwelt A calm and kindly nir, Like a halo over a plotured saint, On his face marked deep with care.

His eyes were closed, and his wrinkled hands Were folded over his west, Were folded over his vest,
As wearly back in his old arm chair
the reclined as if to resu
And the golden streaming sunlight fell
On his brow and down his breast. We waited in reversed silence long, And silence the rouster kept, Though still the accustomed as intly smile Over his features crept; And we thought, worn with the lengthened told Of the summer's day, he slept,

Eo we quiletly rose and left our seats,
And outward into the sun,
From the gathering shales of the dusty-room,
Stole gently one by one;
For we knew, by the distant striking clock,
It was time the achoel was done,

And left the master sleeping alone,
Alone in his high backed chair,
With his epidla closed, and lifs withered palma
Folded as if in prayer
And the mingled light and smile on his face,
And we know not Death was there. Not knowing that, just an the clock struck five, it is kindly soul away. A shadowy neasenger silently bore. From its trembling bouse of clay, To be a child with the Saints of Heaven; and to dwell with Christ away!

After a series of negotiations with the original company, arrangements have been made for the purchase of the vessel for £250,000, being less than one-third of the amount she had cost, viz:

$800,000, and less than the material would fetch

if the vessel were broken up and sold by auction in lots. The Company has been registered under the Joint Stock Companies Acts, 1856.7. The advertisements will appear in a day or two. The capital is fixed at £500,000, in shares of 10s each, of which 2s 7d is to be paid on application, ried, and thores by rail to Toronto, Ottawa, Quebec, and the other British settlements in North America.—London Morning Star, 14th.

The New Chinese Ports.

A circular from Mesers. A. Ellissen & Co, gives the following particulars regarding the new pieces to be set free to British commerce, especially the important town of Hankwyon the Yang-tse-kieng, and Chinkiangtow, which is to be opened on or before the 26th of June, 1859 "The long-expected treaty was signed on the 26th of June, and its etipulations will be found highly restliving to avery reasonable men. The 26th of Juno, and its etipulations will be found highly gratilying to every reasonable man. The most inpertant part of it is article 10, which opens four places on the banks of the Yang-tsekiang, to the European trade. Of these, Hankow, a town about 800 miles up the river, will soon become of great interest to us, as it is the centre of a net of canals and tributaries of the great river, by which the most populated and most important agricultural and manufacturing districts can be reached. It is the great depoint of that part of the country from which comes the best tea and silk, and is also an excellent market for piece goods, woollens, lead and iron. Chin-

The Great Eastern Stramshr.—It is already well known that the proprietors of the Liviathan or Great Eastern steamer, have for some time been in difficulties, so great as to prevent them from finishing the vessel. At length, however, an arrangement has been made which affords a prospect of this great national project being ultimately carried to a successful issue, though by other parties than the present proprietors. COMMERCIAL & FINANCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE DALLY SENTINEL, 1
Friday Evening, Oct. 3, 1888.

MONEY Marters.—The money market is unchanged.
There is some difficulty in obtaining bank accommodations, on account of the searcity of currency. Exchange is still plenty and rates unchanged.

Ruchange on N. Y. city, selling, ... 19 cent premium.

"buying... it is considered in the constant of th

The Press & Tribune of to-day contains the following n relation to financial matters at Chicago: to relation to financial matters at Obleago:

The extreme scarcity of currency still continues, and bankers find much difficulty in accommodating their customers. The same condition of things exists all over the west. To day Eastern Exchange has been pouring into our banks from all quarters—begging them to send on currency for it quick. At St. Louis the bankers have been paying our Missouri for currency checks; while at Springsfield, Peoris, Quincy, Galean, Dubque, Davenport, and all along the Mississippithey are all "short." On account of this concrity, Eastern Exchange is being hawked on the streets at % 8% per cent premium; but the banker's rates are still nominal at 1 per cent. We quotebank discounts 10 per cent; exchange, 1 per cent; gold 1al%; street rates nominal at 1½22 per cent per month.

MILWAUKEE DAILY MARKET. The whost market has been very doll to-day, and buy-ers offers are 20 below yesterday's quotations. The out-gide figures offered for good No. 1 spring were 18c, and the best samples of milling extra would not bring outside of $5c. Winter wheat is quoted at $5a90c. Flour is not changed. Barley romains firm in this market, and continues, we precede, to advance in the Albany market. In relation to the Albany barley market, the Alban & Algus of Theeday, says:

Since our last report some 25,000 bus have changed hands at prices varying from 1,02 to 1,05a1,67a1,10c for fair and handsome four rowed Etate, and 1,18 for cargos of Canada Nysis. We see no research to question the correctness of the idea entertained by many, that prices will rapidly advance until the best descriptions will command 1,25 per bus.

Receipts of wheat to-day are very light. The weather continues cold and windy.
